How Old Armor Was Made.

Ancient armor cost money. A complete iron suit of exclusive design might "stick" the purchaser for as much as $1,000, which was a great sum in those days. Baronial gentlemen, however, had their own professional armorers to turn out such metal garments. The common soldiers went to battle with nothing better to protect them than leather jerkins and steel caps. Recently samples were taken from a dozen of ancient pieces and put through a chemical and microscopical examination by experts in orthat all the pieces thus tested were made from very pure wrought iron. converted into steel by the old "cementation" process. The original iron labor, was produced much like our modern wrought iron. It was carbonized hammered into sheets and the sheets welded together. The whole was then hammered into shape while heated and plunged into mater thus producing the final hardening.

Chancery Orleans County E. Reilly

WHEREAS, M. M. Taplin, Harry Dickens and H. R. Cutler, all of Bar-ton, in the county of Orleans and achusetts, setting forth, in substance, FRED D. PIERCE, BARTON, VT. Phone 138-11 that on the 15th day of August, 1917 said Hannibal L. Hamlin duly executed to said plaintiffs a mortgage deed of certain land in Sutton, in the county of Caledonia and state of Vermont,

"Being the same premises conveyed to the said Hannibal L. Hamlin by said M. M. Taplin, Harry Dickens and H. R. Cutler by their deed dated August 15, 1917, and recorded in book W, page 173, of Sutton land records, reference being made to said deed for a more complete description of said premises."

Conditioned for the payment of certain promissory note dated August 14, 1917, executed by the said Hannibal L. Hamlin, wherein for value received he promised to pay said M. M. Taplin, Harry Dickens and H. R. Cutler, or order, nine hundred dollars on or before one year from date, with interest annually at six per cent which was justly due and owing and had not been paid according to the effect of the same. And further averring that on the 7th day of March, 1918, said Hanni-L. Hamlin executed a second mortgage on said premises to Catherine E. Reilly, of Boston aforesaid, to secure a promissory note of thirty-three hundred dollars on that day executed by the said Hannibal L. Hamlin to the said Catherine E. Reilly. Said plaintiffs aver that, in order to protect themselves they have been obliged to pay the taxes of said premises for the years 1918, 1919 and 1920, amounting to the sum of one hundred seventy- seven dollars and twenty-seven cents.

And further averring that said preof the plaintiffs' mortgage indebtedness, and praying that the time of redemption be shortened. And praying that the equity of re-
